1. Name of the Event : Adawad onion Krushi market field visit
2. Date of the Event : 29/12/2018
3. Total number of Participants : 40 Students
4. Name of the Coordinator : Asst. Prof. Mr. C. R. Deware
5. Report of the event :

On 29/12/2018 (Saturday) Prof. C. R. Deore, Prof. P.J. Jain, and Prof. V.V. Borse with 2nd and 3rd year B.Com students were present for survey of onion market in Adawad. Meticulous studied carried out on the auction process, farmers' opinions... etc.

Adawad Market started on 10.00 am. The price of onion was Rs. 65 to Rs. 210 per quintal. In other words, the price of onion was 300 to 500 Rs. The bidding was going on and the employees of the market were carrying out the auction process smoothly. The farmers were very upset after the onion was sold at the auction. When we tried to find out why they were upset, they said that the production cost per acre is Rs. 40,000. Even if 50 quintals of onion is received per acre, the income is Rs. 20,000 per quintal. In short, on an average, a single loss of Rs. 20,000 is incurred.

Farmers have to deal with various issues ranging from onion seeds, labor cost, spraying, water problem, electricity problem, sources of labor at the time of ransom. Onions will be given a different price as per grade, said the farmers. Some farmers said that Tushar Dhangar, a trader, counted the goods and handed over the check. The check was disrespected. When the complaint was lodged with the Maharashtra Krushi Utapanna Bazar committee, they assured that their issue would be resolved within 10 days. What will the farmer do now?

The government should guarantee farmers' onions and also provide subsidy for farmers' losses. The government has announced a subsidy of Rs 200 per quintal but farmers are not sure when they will get it. The Maharashtra Krushi Utapanna Bazar committee has invited applications from the farmers. In it, it has been asked to apply with the documents of market, market auction strip receipt, and demand form, Aadhar card Xerox etc. and the grant application should be submitted to the Maharashtra Krushi Utapanna Bazar Committee within 15 days.
