Patil, Convener of the workshop, delivered preface of the workshop, Mr. Patil in his preface specifically mentioned the idea behind organizing the workshop on Intellectual Property Rights. He further said, "In today's globally competitive environment, intellectual property has placed itself on a pedestal in the context of economic growth and is becoming increasingly important. Intellectual Property (IP) is the fuel that powers the engine of prosperity, fostering invention and innovation". This was followed by a keynote address by Dr. Anil N. Chikate, he appreciated and congratulated our college for arranging a workshop on 'IPR' as it is a burning topic in Academia and Industry all over the world. He also said that this is the first of its kind workshop in the North Maharashtra region. He said that students, Research Scholars and faculty members must know about IP and IPR; he explained in brief the basic tenets of the Intellectual Property and Intellectual Property Rights. Respected Principal Dr. D.A. Suryawanshi

start of the lecture.)

This lecture was started around 3.10 pm, the Resource Person Dr. Bhushan Chaudhari spoke on Protection of Intellectual Property and the procedure of filing patents. This was quite a brainstorming session; Dr. Chaudhari covered almost all the aspects of Intellectual Property in detail. He said that there are complex legal processes involved in the IPR protection and one needs to be aware about the complexities of the same. His lecture was quite illustrative due to the number of pie charts, tables, graphs and figures used from authentic sources. He talked specifically about the 'Research scenario' in India in comparison with the world in general and China in particular. He expressed concern over the poor research activity/output in India as compared to other developing economies. Dr. Chaudhari too congratulated the College for organizing the workshop on IPR. He informed the participants about the research and patent promotion scheme run by Kavayitri Bahinabai Chaudhari North Maharashtra University, Jalgaon to promote patent filing; he said that if a researcher wants to file a patent the university offers financial support upto 90% for the same. He ended his lecture on a positive note and urged the participants to create innovative Intellectual Property.

Expert Lecture-1

Time: 11.05am to 12.30pm

Resource Person:

Mrs. SUNITA SIDHANI (Lawyer & Asst. Professor, SIA College of Higher Education, Dombivli)

The First session of the workshop started with the expert talk of Mrs. Sidhani on "Intellectual Property Rights: Nature & Scope". She started her lecture by defining the IP and IPR. She said that intellectual Property is a 'creation of mind' such as a literary piece, industrial design, logo or geographical indication. She covered all the important aspects of the Intellectual Property and expressed her concern over the poor enforcement of IPR laws in our country. She also said that there are numerous Intellectual Properties in the Indian farming industry that need urgent protection of IPR laws. This was a well organized and astutely delivered lecture that had surely enlightened the audience.

After the lecture, the session was made open for questions & answers. Some of the participants asked their doubts and queries regarding IPR in general. Mrs. Sunita Sidhani addressed all the queries of the audience in profound manner.
